Mission Statement

At South Garland High School, we:

- Train ourselves to meet the needs of our students and community.
- Invest in relationships with students academically and emotionally.
- Teach students the way they learn, not the way that is most comfortable for us.
- Accept responsibility for the success of all students and one another.
- Never go one day without making a difference!

It's Time to TITAN Up!

Vision

A Titan is defined as a person or thing of very great strength, intellect, or importance. At South Garland High School, we seek to educate students to succeed at their potential and prepare them to be engaged servants and leaders in our community. Our students are well on their way to exceed this. Welcome to the Home of the Titans!

Value Statement

At South Garland High School, we exist to impact our students, staff, and area through our pillars of:

1. Culture
2. Content
3. Community
