#	Question	Answer
1	All the part numbers in the voicemail section are no longer valid and refer to an 8.7 Port-based voicemail system. A port-based system is no longer sold. They now sell new voicemail systems based on a subscriber-based model. Do you want us to show up to date part numbers for a new subscriber-based voicemail system?	If no pricing can be provided based on the specifications because equipment is no longer available, please provide pricing on current equipment and specify what it will be replacing.
2	Do you want us to give you pricing for the voicemail parts based on new up to date part numbers for your existing port-based systems? These part numbers would only be valid if used to add ports or update software in your existing systems.	If no pricing can be provided based on the specifications because equipment is no longer available, please provide pricing on current equipment and specify what it will be replacing.
3	The Server that should be referenced in the RFP should be an up to date server that best matches the old one you have in your spreadsheet. This would be a DELL R740HE. Do you want us to give you a price on a DELL R740HE?	If no pricing can be provided based on the specifications because equipment is no longer available, please provide pricing on current equipment and specify what it will be replacing.
4	The part numbers for the first four items under the heading of Telephones and Campus Equipment are no longer valid. Do you want us to give the price based on the new part numbers for these items?	Yes, provide new part number that corresponds, along with pricing.
5	The part number BE107636 is for an SV8500 IP Endpoint. It incorrectly states it is for an SV9500 IP Endpoint. This part number does not exist for an SV9500 IP endpoint. Do you still want a price for this SV8500 part?	Add "Not Applicable" to your submittal for this part if not available.
6	Part number 8510100 no longer exists by itself. It is now a child part number and comes included in part number Q24-UW000000107989. Do you want us to give a price for part number Q24-UW000000107989?	Add "Not Applicable" to your submittal for this part if not available, or provide pricing on the part indicated in your submission.
7	Part number 8525017 no longer exists. Would you like us to give a price based on the new part number BE112838?	Yes, provide pricing based on the new part number.
8	Item SCA-4LC2COTA is no longer manufactured. The replacement would be a UG50 with one 4-port analog station card and one 4-port CO card. It would also include 4 UG50 analog station Licenses and 2 UG50 CO trunk licenses. Do you want a price of a UG50 with the two cards and licenses?	We do not need the UG50 pricing, instead, provide pricing on a 6 port analog replacement, PART 8526015.
9	The SV9500 DVD is discontinued and no longer sold? Do you want to remove this from your list? It has been replaced with Q24-FR000000138376. Do you want a price for this part number?	Yes, supply the replacement part pricing.

10	Part number 8528404 is no longer valid. The new part number is Q24-FR000000106521. Do you want a price for the new part number?	Yes, supply the replacement part pricing.
11	Part number BE112820 has been discontinued. Do you want a price for the new part number BE119285?	Yes, supply the replacement part pricing.
