Questions and Answers:

- 1. Question: Whether or not 32283, 394-20-03 concerns strictly a reading program, or concerns a full curriculum;
Answer: The District is soliciting an interdisciplinary alternative curriculum software. It is not strictly a reading program only.
- 2. Question: Where in the online materials GISD has published in this instance we can find a simple description of what the Purchasing Dept is looking for;
Answer: Scope is listed in the Instruction Sheet on page 19:
The District is seeking suppliers of alternative curriculum for Special Education students Pre K-12th grade to provide a total software solution which includes software, videos and printable materials.
- 3. Question: If it is strictly for reading materials, is this a "request for a quote", a "request for a proposal" or for a "bid";
Answer: This is a Request for Proposal (RFP)
- 4. Question: What is the difference between an RFP, RFQ and a bid in Garland Purchasing terms,
Answer: RFP is Request for Proposal and RFQ is Request for Quote
- 5. Question: Whether we are going to be penalized for any inaction we take while waiting for your answer.
Answer: There are no penalties for inaction before addendum dates.
- 6. Question: It seems this might be looking for more of a full curriculum including health, life skills?
Answer: This curriculum is for core subjects. Life skills are preferred but not required.
- 7. Question: We need more specific information than the general title "SpEd Alternative Curriculum".

Answer: Please see Minimum Requirements on page 19 under Instruction Sheet and page 26 for each line item description.
